Ancestors in Faith

Summer Worship Theme

Meeting our Ancestors in Faith, one Story at a Time.

The Bible can be a barrier for a lot of people of faith. It's large, intimidating, and can be confusing! Many people are wary to read these texts, carry bruises from their upbringing, or simply don't have enough information for the stories to make sense. This summer, we invite you to spend time reclaiming the "good" in the Good Book learning and relearning how ancient stories relate to our stories here and now.

SACA Food Drive

Over the next several weeks we are collecting food for SACA.

This week we are collecting crackers.

You can put your donations in the bin in the narthex.

Thank you to those who helped with the park cleanup this past week and to all who help to keep our park clean on a regular basis.

Next cleanup date is
Sunday, September 8

Pastoral

Do you or someone you know need prayers? Contact the office to be included on the prayer list.

Quiet flow – a wing becoming air

Life is but a quiet flow.

Free of our labelling mind, resting in its source, silent, what is it that we witness when we see a bird rise and soar?

A bird?

Or bone, flesh, feather, and air?

Where is its “birdness” now?

What of that?

And what even of bone, flesh, feather, and air?

What are we actually witnessing?

And who are we that are witnessing?

Such is the miracle of life, constantly unfolding, all around us and within us, without beginning or end.

From Silentium

Thank you, Daniel, for sharing these thoughts on our turkey “Mr. T”
